

Life Under the Nazis

---

Comprehension Questions

1. According to the passage, how many people lived in the ghetto in Lodz?
  - A. 120,000
  - B. 200,000
  - C. 1,939
  - D. 200

2. The writer of this passage describes some of Ross's photographs. According to the passage, which of the following is a description of a photograph that is in Ross's archives?
  - A. the German army marching
  - B. a family in the park
  - C. starving German families eating dinner
  - D. starving Jewish people eating soup

3. It can be inferred from the passage that
  - A. there often was not enough food for people in the ghetto
  - B. everyone survived the Holocaust
  - C. life in the ghetto was easy for all Jewish people
  - D. survivors have good memories of living in the ghetto

4. Read the following sentence:

“Today, those photos still evoke painful memories.”

As used in the passage, evoke means

- A. ignore
- B. bring to mind
- C. forget
- D. get rid of

5. Which of the following best describes what this passage is mostly about?

- A. Esther Brunstein’s life
- B. Henryk’s photographs of life in a Polish ghetto during the Holocaust
- C. how to take photographs in a Polish ghetto during the Holocaust
- D. the life of Henryk Ross

6. According to the passage, how many European Jews were killed by the German Nazis during World War II?

7. Based on the passage, why did Ross most likely bury some of the photos he took during the war?

8. The question below is an incomplete sentence. Choose the word that best completes the sentence.

Henryk Ross's son gave the collection of photographs to the Archive of Modern Conflict _____ his father's death in 1991.

- A. after
- B. but
- C. so
- D. because

9. Which image shows a man who lives a privileged life?

A

B

10. Who had a more privileged life in the Lodz ghetto: Esther Brunstein or Henryk Ross? Why?